

“We’re serious about our commitment to serve all of Europe’s needs.”

To All Our Friends, Customers and Future Customers Throughout Europe,

For almost 40 years, we’ve been creating innovative power amplifiers & accessories for EMC testing; wireless communications; electronic warfare; medical/industrial, scientific equipment; and more.

Hopefully, you know our products and you know that we deliver the highest level of quality and service.

We’ve recently taken steps to enhance our presence throughout Europe; and to make it easier than ever for you to access the AR solutions you need.

We’re serious about our commitment to serve all of Europe’s needs; and to continue bringing you the innovative products & services you need for a competitive edge in this tough, global market.

I want to personally thank you for your long and loyal support; and once again confirm our commitment to our European customers.

Sincerely,

Donald “Shep” Shepherd
President
AR
